The grieving process is challenging, but you don't have to endure it alone. Join us to learn tools which can help recapture joy in your life. Social workers and chaplains who are experienced in helping individuals and families throughout the journey of grief and loss will address these issues:

- Loss of a spouse's or your health and independence
- Death of a loved one
- Unexpected twists along the road of life
- Loss of control

*Join us as at either community each month.
However, seating is limited so call to
RSVP for you and a friend today.*
